"Inside The Agony of Winning, Kevin Touhey lays out comprehensive strategies for coaches, players and parents, who perhaps serve as the greatest challenge facing youth sport in the 21st Century. Coach Touhey's approach ensures that critical life lessons are not lost amidst the competitive nature of sport and remain the central theme of youth instruction."
Temple University, Head Coach Al Golden

The Agony of Winning helps parents, coaches, and players rediscover the spirit of sport and its core values. Kevin writes about how core values needs to be re-introduced as the focal point in athletics. The book provides 7 Strategies that lay the ground work for more cooperation, values-based teachings for all those involved in athletic endeavors, whether as a player, coach or parent.
